

IN MEMORIAM OF:

Correction Officer Andrew Brown
On Duty: 01/05//07 End of Shift: 06/08/10

I AM NOT THERE - Robert Hepburn

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there. I did not die.

On June 8, 2010, Correction Officer Andrew Brown succumbed to death while in the intensive care unit of United Health Care facility in Johnson City, NY.

Andrew was popular with both Supervision as well as his fellow employees because of his ever-present helpful attitude and pleasant demeanor. Upon reflection, Andrew will long be remembered for his generosity and for never speaking badly of anyone. Hopefully, the kindness he extended to others will be revisited upon him ten-fold over.

While working with us, Andrew was often called away to active duty in the National Guard. His last assignment to Afghanistan lasted approximately ten months.

Andrew's personal contributions to the smooth running of this organization as well as his personal strengths will long be remembered by those of us fortunate enough to have known him.
