PRESS RELEASE

November 7, 2013

On Thursday morning Delaware County Sheriff's Deputies arrested a 20-year old Port Jefferson, NY man on a Delaware County Grand Jury Sealed Indictment Warrant charging him with two counts of Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree.

Former SUNY Delhi student Gregory J. Nielsen was arrested by Deputies upon his surrender at the Delaware County Sheriff's Office with his attorney.

Nielsen is accused of selling cocaine in the Village of Delhi during late February and early March of this year.

Nielsen was arrested in March of this year by Delaware County Sheriff's Investigators and charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree following the execution of a Search Warrant at his residence that led to the seizure of cocaine, digital scales, marihuana and cash

Nielsen was arraigned before County Court Judge Carl F. Becker and was released on recognizance pending further court action.
