PRESS RELEASE
December 23, 2013

A Village of Stamford man arrested last week by Delaware County Sheriff's Investigators following the execution of a Search Warrant at his residence now faces additional charges.

On Monday morning Hector L. Padilla, Jr., 44, was arrested by Sheriff's Investigators and charged with three class B felony charges of Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree relating to sales of heroin in the Village of Stamford during November and December.

Padilla was arraigned before the Honorable James Merritt in the Town of Harpersfield Court and was remanded to the Delaware County Correctional Facility in lieu of $5,000 cash bail on each of the new charges. Padilla also continues to be held in lieu of $30,000 cash bail set last Wednesday following his arraignment on charges of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree and three counts of Criminal Possession of a Weapon.
